

Colonel David F. McAllister
Chief of Police

NEWS RELEASE

February 24, 2011

The Bluffton Police School Resource Officer at H.E. McCracken Middle School investigated an incident involving six students in possession of alcohol and/or marijuana.

The investigation determined that a student brought a soda bottle containing alcohol onto school property and shared it with three (3) other students. In addition, two other students were also caught attempting to hide a small clear plastic bag containing marijuana.

In total, six students were arrested and charged. One male student and three female students were charged with Possession of Alcohol. A male and female student was charged with Simple Possession of Marijuana. The students ranged in age of 13 to 15 and were released to their parents.